Rooms & Suites

The luxury of simplicity

In each room and suite, there is a perfect blend of contemporary and provençal tradition. Wood, linen and cotton fabrics... It is in this play of materials and colors that harmony and serenity reign.

Each room is decorated in a unique way, in ever delicate tones and soft shade of beige. The painter Yves Boussin created the paintings that adorn the walls, exclusively for the hotel.

Contemporary furnitures by Grange, Flamant and Villa Alys lamps blend perfectly with antique provençal pieces sourced from local antique dealers and brocanteurs. Faucets by Grohe, curtains and various designs signed by Pierre Frey and Casal, luxurious wooden floors...

Particular attention is taken to every detail and all the materials used are of high quality.

The Provençal bastide, which is the hotel's main residence, offers rooms and suites on the «Côté Bastide» side. They are located on the ground and first floors. The rooms and suites « Côté Jardin » are situated in a second building at the heart of the natural park. Their private terraces and balconies have a magnificent view of the Mediterranean gardens.

Gastronomy

The restaurant

Benvengudo's gourmet restaurant is in harmony with the rooms. When you walk through the restaurant door you enter a room bathed in light where even the paintings match the natural shades of beige that are present on the round tables. This place is both an intimate and convivial place.

The Chef

More than a profession, cooking is a real passion for the Chef Thomas Voisin. Always in search of new flavors, he is inspired by his travels, especially in Asia, but also by the rich Provencal terroir. His cuisine strives for the perfect balance between custom and avant-gardism. He is strongly attached to seasonal products and ensures that a strong bond is maintained with the local producers. The Chef enjoys cooking as much as he does choosing his fruits and vegetables on the markets of Provence and picks the aromatic herbs himself in the hotel's garden.

The regional cuisine

Benvengudo is a real culinary experience where cooking is an art. Chef Thomas Voisin puts all the colors and flavors of Provence on your plate ! The restaurants offers a short menu with exquisite dishes accompanied by a very fine selection of wines, particularly from surrounding wine-growing estates.

«Be inspired every day to please guests with the flavors I bring to the table and offer them what they deserve: good products, precise cooking and attention to details», this is the philosophy of Thomas Voisin.

Organizing your business events

The art of Provençal hospitality

Meeting room with the charm of Provence

Benvenigudo Hotel offers a 72m² meeting room that can accommodate up to 50 participants. Once used to protect citrus fruits and plants from the frost in winter, the Orangerie has preserved all its former charms. Its large bay windows offer a superb view of the hotel's Mediterranean garden and let natural light in. There is also a large fireplace that warms the atmosphere. In summer as in autumn, the Orangerie is always cosy and convivial.

A dedicated team and excellent service

Whether it is a corporate or private event, each guest can fully enjoy a pleasant Provençal atmosphere and spend unique moments. Beyond the authentic landscapes, lavender fields and olive groves, its the warm welcoming and enthusiasm of the entire team that make these moments memorable. Dynamic and dedicated, the Benvenigudo team guides its hosts and does everything possible to ensure an unforgettable experience.

Life is sweet under the Provençal sun, the cicadas sing and the lavenders spread their perfume at the mercy of the mistral. It is almost like being in a book by Pagnol...

Our team will be happy to organize activities for your group, such as wine and oil tastings, craft workshops, guided tours or nature walks in the surrounding villages and towns, etc. Located in the heart of Provence at an altitude of 245 meters, at the top of a rocky hill you can explore the valley and the entire Alpilles region on foot, by bike (including electric) and even on horseback.

Provence is also very popular for golf lovers. Several golf fields are within one hour's drive from Benvenuto. Manville golf course is only 3 minutes away the hotel. Servanes' 18-hole golf course is entirely traced in the heart of the Alpilles massif and located only 12 kilometers from the Benvenuto.
